To
All the Affiliates of BSFI,

Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub: National Championship 2021 at Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh from 24.11.2021 to 29.12.2021.

This mail has the reference to the cited subject. We would request you to advice players from your State to adhere the following advices and instructions.

- 1) Dress code: Dark colour trouser with full sleeves shirt and a jacket and leather shoes is the dress code of the matches and all players are advised to follow the same.
- 2) Players are requested to carry woollen wears as the temperatures are expected to be between 7 to 25 degree Celsius since the campus is on the outskirts of the city the wind chill is definitely chilly.
- 3) Smoking: Since the premises is a university, smokers are advised to use the smoking zone specially created for the purpose and please ensure that as smoking is not permitted everywhere in the premises.

Two smoking zones are created one near the venue and another near the dining area. Players are requested to only confine smoking to these areas.

4) All players are requested to wear the player badge while staying in the campus of the university, which will be provided upon players registration counter at the University.

5) All players are requested to carry the digital copy of the final vaccination certificate on the mobile and produce whenever demanded by any authority. In case of any player is vaccinated with single vaccination and the final vaccination date is expected ahead of the Nationals, then the player has to carry a negative RT-PCR report of not more than 72 hours before entering the premises of the University. Players below the age of 18 years have to carry a negative RT-PCR certificate as mentioned above. In case of any eventuality of any player found positive during the championship, the cost and the consequences onus would lie on the player. It is advised that all players visiting the National Championship should carry the copy of their medical insurance also. Players are requested to maintain all covid protocols while they are inside the university campus.

6) Players are adviced to maintain cleanliness and are not expected to throw litter in the university campus; litter should be thrown at the dust bins provided from place to place.

7) Players are adviced not to use any un-parliamentary language with others and within the player's fraternity.

We are all aware that this game has its own decorum, protocols, etiquettes and manners.

We as a fraternity should leave an impression that our fraternity although a very small one but is highly disciplined.

If a case of indiscipline is reported to the Organising Committee then the decision of the discipline committee would be final and binding to all concerned.

It is specifically adviced to all players that BSFI has given exclusive rights for Live Streaming and Digital Media rights to its partners and all rights are the exclusive properties of the BSFI. All players, referees and other officials are requested not to violate the same directly or indirectly.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

SUNIL BAJAJ
Secretary General
